Male students pursuing nontraditional health careers is subject of May 4 panel discussion at Paoli Hospital

PAOLI _ A panel discussion featuring men pursuing nontraditional careers in the dynamic health care industry will be held on Monday, May 4, 2009, at 7:00 p.m. at Paoli Hospital.

Some of the careers to be covered will be physical therapy, radiology and nursing. Male middle and high school students, parents, teachers and counselors are invited to attend the session.

The hospital is located at 225 West Lancaster Avenue, Paoli. Contact Leslie Holmes at lholmes@cceconomicdevelopment.com or call 610.458.5700 ext. 311 to register or for more information.

The Chester County Health Care Partnership www.chestercountyhealthcare.org is sponsoring the event. The partnership is an initiative of the Chester County Workforce Investment Board and the Chester County Economic Development Council with grant funds received from the Pennsylvania Department of Labor and Industry.

The Chester County Economic Development Council is a private, non-profit economic development organization that has been nurturing economic growth in Chester County and the surrounding region for more than 45 years. The Council's portfolio of business growth services includes: low-interest financing, small business lending, workforce training, retention and expansion, customized international business assistance, land and building site selection, brownfields consultation and remediation, urban redevelopment, and agricultural economic development. The Council also offers state-of-the art conference and training facilities at its facility in Eagleview. For more information, see www.cceconomicdevelopment.com
